

Handing over the check to Toberman Neighborhood Center and Peninsula Seniors.

MAKING CONNECTIONS

LA Networking Matters hosted the third annual Networking for a Cause event, Oktoberfest at Shade. Chaired by Adia In-Home Care, the event raised more than $12,000 for Toberman Neighborhood Center and Peninsula Seniors.

FITNESS FÊTE

Southbay magazine welcomed clients and guests to Equinox South Bay for the Health & Wellness issue party benefiting Cancer Support Community-Redondo Beach. Sponsors included VOXDJs, Salt Creek Grille, Kona Brewing Co. and Harmonie Liqueur.

Katie Clark, Monica Mulcahy, Priscillo Atenco, Pallava Goenka, Vianey Castro, Carolyn Craig

DJ Dustin with VOXDJs

Charli Eaton, Dr. John & Carol Shafer

BEACH READ

Bella Beach in Manhattan Beach hosted a book signing and benefit for the Don't Wait Project, with food and wine provided by nearby Café Pierre.

Kris D'Errico (center) and friends celebrate Big Shoes.

South Bay wiz kid Thomas Suarez

LEARNING CURVE

TEDxManhattanBeach and the Manhattan Beach Education Foundation (MBEF) presented "Transforming Learning," a one-day conference committed to sharing the most forward-thinking ideas in education today. Conceived by parents and community leaders and attended by 500, the presenters represented extraordinary thought leaders deservedly recognized by their peers in industry, academia and their community.